

JOIN THE 2nd BUDDHIST PEACE DELEGATION

MANDATE FOR PEACE IN IRAQ Teach-in, March and Lobbying

January 26-29, 2007

Washington, D.C.

Buddhists and friends of all spiritual traditions: let's come together to manifest the change we are seeking in the world – peacefully and compassionately being together. Join our contingent of peacemakers, inspired by the way of peace taught by Thich Nhat Hanh, Joanna Macy, H.H. the Dalai Lama, and many others.

Families with children and young people are especially encouraged to join!

Fri. Jan 26 “Peace in Our Hearts, Peace in the World:” Meditation/Teach-in with Bhante Suhita Dharma and David Loy + Special Children’s Activities

Time: 7 – 9:30 pm

Location: Foundry United Methodist Church, 1500 16th St. NW (near Dupont Circle Metro). We’ll learn how greed, anger and delusion (the three poisons) manifest on a social and political level, and how we can respond. Children will make posters and pray flags, and do yoga.

Sat. Jan 27 Peace March (with pre- and post-March gatherings) *UPDATED 1/17/07

Inter-faith Service with the Network of Spiritual Progressives, 9–10:30 am, Lutheran Church of the Reformation, 212 East Capitol Street; UFPJ Rally on the Mall, 11 am -1 pm, between 3rd & 7th Streets; Assemble on the Mall (for those not attending morning activities), 12-12:30 pm, NW corner of 4th and Jefferson Streets, (nearest Metro - Federal Center SW); Mindfully walk together in the March, 1-4 pm; Meal together at Burma Restaurant, 5 pm, 740 6th St., NW in Chinatown.

Sun, Jan 28 Training Day

*Possible BPF NVC Training (TBD), 10 am - 12 pm; Iraq Update & Advocacy Training, 12:30 - 2:30 p.m.; State Caucuses & Buddhist Delegation Meeting, 2:30 - 4:30 pm
Location: Bethesda Chevy Chase High School, 4301 East-West Hwy (Bethesda Metro)*

Mon, Jan 29 Lobbying Day

Time: 9 am – 5 pm. Buddhist Peace Delegation members will visit Congressional representatives to talk about options for peace in Iraq.
